

FRENCH MAKE BIG GAINS AT VERDUN

GEN. TREVINO ASKS FOLK TO FLEE MEXICO

Mexican Commander Warns Residents of Chihuahua to Leave City.

WIFECROSSES BORDER

Mrs. Trevino at El Paso Activity in Field to Be Soon Renewed?

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 25.—General Trevino, commander of the Mexican forces in the Chihuahua campaign, has issued a warning to the residents of Chihuahua to leave the city immediately. He stated that the city was in a dangerous position and that the Mexican forces were not in a position to defend it. He also stated that the city was being shelled by the German forces and that the residents were in danger of being killed.

Hold Funeral of AUSTRO PREMIER

Make Last Rites Over Count Sturgis. Who Was Assassinated—Successor Considered.

Vienno, Oct. 25.—The funeral of Count Sturgis, the late Austro-Hungarian premier, was held today in the city of Vienna. The funeral was attended by a large number of people, including members of the government and the military. The Count was buried in the city of Vienna.

SEVEN CENT GAIN SCORED BY WHEAT

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Wheat futures in Chicago closed today with a gain of seven cents. The price of wheat was $1.17 per bushel. The gain was due to a shortage of wheat in the world market.

BATTLESHIP RIDES REACH HIGH FIGURE

Washington, Oct. 25.—When bids for the new battleships were opened today, the highest single bid was $1,000,000. The bids were for the construction of new battleships for the United States Navy.

MILLION BUSHEL CORN STORY WILD

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 25.—Reports of a million bushels of corn in the market here today were regarded as a wild story. The reports were that a large quantity of corn had been brought to the market, but the reports were not confirmed.

More Norse Boats Sunk; Crisis Near

London, Oct. 25.—The sinking by German submarines of five more Norwegian steamships, totaling about 10,000 tons, is reported in the London Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

WIFECROSSES BORDER

Mrs. Trevino at El Paso Activity in Field to Be Soon Renewed?

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 25.—General Trevino, commander of the Mexican forces in the Chihuahua campaign, has issued a warning to the residents of Chihuahua to leave the city immediately. He stated that the city was in a dangerous position and that the Mexican forces were not in a position to defend it. He also stated that the city was being shelled by the German forces and that the residents were in danger of being killed.

HE TRIED TO START FIRE WITH GASOLINE

Los Grove, Pa., Oct. 25.—Police here today are investigating the case of a man who tried to start a fire with gasoline. The man was caught by the police and is now in custody.

THE WEATHER

Forecast for the week ending October 31, 1916. High temperature 70, low temperature 40. Windy, with occasional showers.

THE WAR TODAY

The French have maintained the important ground they won yesterday in their camp north of Verdun. The war office announced today that the French forces were in a strong position and that the German forces were not in a position to attack.

GRANTS POSTPONEMENT MOTION

Washington, Oct. 25.—The supreme court today granted a motion for postponement in the case of the United States vs. the American Railway Union. The court is now considering the case and will make a decision at a later date.

GIRLS FOR DECOYS TO HELP OFFICERS GET SOLDIER BOYS

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 25.—The United States army today announced that it had received a large number of girls who were willing to serve as decoys for the army. The girls were to be used to help the army in its operations against the enemy.

INVADERS OF RUMANIA ARE PRESSING ON

Further Retirement of Defenders Before Onrush of Invaders Is Admitted.

TCHERNAVODA TAKEN

Von Mackensen Continues to Push Advantage Along Dobruja Front.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—The wireless Telegrams from Bucharest today reported that the German forces were pressing on towards Tchernavoda. The German forces were in a strong position and were not in a position to be stopped. The Romanian forces were in a weak position and were not in a position to defend the city.

TOOL MAKERS MUCH SOUGHT AFTER NOW

New York, Oct. 25.—Members of the National Machine Tool Builders' association today announced that they were in a strong position to defend their industry. They were not in a position to be stopped by the government and were not in a position to be forced to stop working.

WILSON LEAVES FOR CINCINNATI

Long Beach, N. J., Oct. 25.—President Wilson today left for Cincinnati. He was accompanied by his family and was in a good mood. He was not in a position to be stopped by the government and was not in a position to be forced to stop working.

BOMB EXPLODED IN NEW YORK SUBWAY

New York, Oct. 25.—Explosion of a bomb in the New York subway today caused a large number of people to be injured. The bomb was thrown by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

Latest Bulletins

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 25.—Six persons were killed today when an automobile struck a building. The automobile was driven by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

THE WAR TODAY

The French have maintained the important ground they won yesterday in their camp north of Verdun. The war office announced today that the French forces were in a strong position and that the German forces were not in a position to attack.

GRANTS POSTPONEMENT MOTION

Washington, Oct. 25.—The supreme court today granted a motion for postponement in the case of the United States vs. the American Railway Union. The court is now considering the case and will make a decision at a later date.

Canada Rail Strike Off? SOME SAY NO

Canadian Pacific Said to Have Reached Agreement—Others Will Quit.

TOOL MAKERS MUCH SOUGHT AFTER NOW

New York, Oct. 25.—Members of the National Machine Tool Builders' association today announced that they were in a strong position to defend their industry. They were not in a position to be stopped by the government and were not in a position to be forced to stop working.

WILSON LEAVES FOR CINCINNATI

Long Beach, N. J., Oct. 25.—President Wilson today left for Cincinnati. He was accompanied by his family and was in a good mood. He was not in a position to be stopped by the government and was not in a position to be forced to stop working.

BOMB EXPLODED IN NEW YORK SUBWAY

New York, Oct. 25.—Explosion of a bomb in the New York subway today caused a large number of people to be injured. The bomb was thrown by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

Latest Bulletins

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 25.—Six persons were killed today when an automobile struck a building. The automobile was driven by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

THE WAR TODAY

The French have maintained the important ground they won yesterday in their camp north of Verdun. The war office announced today that the French forces were in a strong position and that the German forces were not in a position to attack.

GRANTS POSTPONEMENT MOTION

Washington, Oct. 25.—The supreme court today granted a motion for postponement in the case of the United States vs. the American Railway Union. The court is now considering the case and will make a decision at a later date.

GIRLS FOR DECOYS TO HELP OFFICERS GET SOLDIER BOYS

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 25.—The United States army today announced that it had received a large number of girls who were willing to serve as decoys for the army. The girls were to be used to help the army in its operations against the enemy.

Italy Forces in Junction With Allies

Paris, Oct. 25.—Italian forces today joined the Allied forces in the battle of Verdun. The Italian forces were in a strong position and were not in a position to be stopped by the German forces.

TOOL MAKERS MUCH SOUGHT AFTER NOW

New York, Oct. 25.—Members of the National Machine Tool Builders' association today announced that they were in a strong position to defend their industry. They were not in a position to be stopped by the government and were not in a position to be forced to stop working.

WILSON LEAVES FOR CINCINNATI

Long Beach, N. J., Oct. 25.—President Wilson today left for Cincinnati. He was accompanied by his family and was in a good mood. He was not in a position to be stopped by the government and was not in a position to be forced to stop working.

BOMB EXPLODED IN NEW YORK SUBWAY

New York, Oct. 25.—Explosion of a bomb in the New York subway today caused a large number of people to be injured. The bomb was thrown by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

Latest Bulletins

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 25.—Six persons were killed today when an automobile struck a building. The automobile was driven by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

THE WAR TODAY

The French have maintained the important ground they won yesterday in their camp north of Verdun. The war office announced today that the French forces were in a strong position and that the German forces were not in a position to attack.

GRANTS POSTPONEMENT MOTION

Washington, Oct. 25.—The supreme court today granted a motion for postponement in the case of the United States vs. the American Railway Union. The court is now considering the case and will make a decision at a later date.

GIRLS FOR DECOYS TO HELP OFFICERS GET SOLDIER BOYS

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 25.—The United States army today announced that it had received a large number of girls who were willing to serve as decoys for the army. The girls were to be used to help the army in its operations against the enemy.

Upper River Meet Opens; 200 Present

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 25.—Shoppers' conference today opened with the presence of 200 people. The conference was held to discuss the problems of the Upper River and to find a way to solve them.

TOOL MAKERS MUCH SOUGHT AFTER NOW

New York, Oct. 25.—Members of the National Machine Tool Builders' association today announced that they were in a strong position to defend their industry. They were not in a position to be stopped by the government and were not in a position to be forced to stop working.

WILSON LEAVES FOR CINCINNATI

Long Beach, N. J., Oct. 25.—President Wilson today left for Cincinnati. He was accompanied by his family and was in a good mood. He was not in a position to be stopped by the government and was not in a position to be forced to stop working.

BOMB EXPLODED IN NEW YORK SUBWAY

New York, Oct. 25.—Explosion of a bomb in the New York subway today caused a large number of people to be injured. The bomb was thrown by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

Latest Bulletins

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 25.—Six persons were killed today when an automobile struck a building. The automobile was driven by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

THE WAR TODAY

The French have maintained the important ground they won yesterday in their camp north of Verdun. The war office announced today that the French forces were in a strong position and that the German forces were not in a position to attack.

GRANTS POSTPONEMENT MOTION

Washington, Oct. 25.—The supreme court today granted a motion for postponement in the case of the United States vs. the American Railway Union. The court is now considering the case and will make a decision at a later date.

GIRLS FOR DECOYS TO HELP OFFICERS GET SOLDIER BOYS

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 25.—The United States army today announced that it had received a large number of girls who were willing to serve as decoys for the army. The girls were to be used to help the army in its operations against the enemy.

TAKE GROUND Foe HAS LONG FIGHT TO WIN

German Front on Right Bank of Meuse Is Literally Swept Away.

CAPTURE DOUVAUMONT

Much Fought Over Fort It Again Held by France—Vanx Threatened.

Paris, Oct. 25.—The French forces today captured the German front on the right bank of the Meuse. The German forces were in a weak position and were not in a position to defend the front. The French forces were in a strong position and were not in a position to be stopped by the German forces.

TOOL MAKERS MUCH SOUGHT AFTER NOW

New York, Oct. 25.—Members of the National Machine Tool Builders' association today announced that they were in a strong position to defend their industry. They were not in a position to be stopped by the government and were not in a position to be forced to stop working.

WILSON LEAVES FOR CINCINNATI

Long Beach, N. J., Oct. 25.—President Wilson today left for Cincinnati. He was accompanied by his family and was in a good mood. He was not in a position to be stopped by the government and was not in a position to be forced to stop working.

BOMB EXPLODED IN NEW YORK SUBWAY

New York, Oct. 25.—Explosion of a bomb in the New York subway today caused a large number of people to be injured. The bomb was thrown by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

Latest Bulletins

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 25.—Six persons were killed today when an automobile struck a building. The automobile was driven by a person who was in a bad mood and was not in a position to be stopped by the police.

THE WAR TODAY

The French have maintained the important ground they won yesterday in their camp north of Verdun. The war office announced today that the French forces were in a strong position and that the German forces were not in a position to attack.

GRANTS POSTPONEMENT MOTION

Washington, Oct. 25.—The supreme court today granted a motion for postponement in the case of the United States vs. the American Railway Union. The court is now considering the case and will make a decision at a later date.

GIRLS FOR DECOYS TO HELP OFFICERS GET SOLDIER BOYS

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 25.—The United States army today announced that it had received a large number of girls who were willing to serve as decoys for the army. The girls were to be used to help the army in its operations against the enemy.